

Removal of Officers for Just Cause

KWWOA officers may be removed from office, both at the state and chapter level, for “just cause”, including but not limited to:

1. Failure to attend three consecutive required meetings (special, business, chapter) without sufficient reason;
2. Mishandling of KWWOA funds;
3. Any final disciplinary action taken by the Kentucky Certification Boards and/or the Division of Compliance Assistance against the Board Member’s license, and
4. Failure to perform the duties of the position held in a timely and/or appropriate manner.
